

IPA's Internship Initiatives Advancing our Mission

Summer Internship Class Comprised of Diverse, Underrepresented Candidates from both Target and Non-Target Universities

Bamidele Idaomi
American University
Rising Sophomore
Economics

Quinn Lewis
Harvard University
Rising Senior
Government

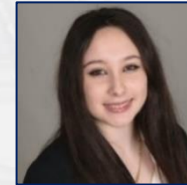

Ashley Luk
University of Virginia
Rising Junior
Computer Science

Robert McFarland
Temple University
Rising Senior
Finance & Risk
Management

Riya Ravi
Colby College
Rising Junior
Economics &
Financial Markets

Elizabeth Reeves
Ohio State University
Rising Junior
Accounting & Finance

John Regan
Loyola University Maryland
Rising Junior
Finance & Information
Systems

IPA Internship Summary

- 10-week Program Offering Opportunities to Learn from All of IPA's Focus Areas Including: Strategic Advisory, Capital Markets, ESG, and Risk Advisory
- Access to Financial and Technical Training to Prepare Candidates for Future Career Opportunities
- Opportunities to Network with Large Financial Institutions and Corporates Through IPA's Week on Wall Street Programming and Summer Speaker Series
- IPA's Interns Received Opportunities to Interview for Internship and Full Time Positions with Program Participants Across the Street
- The Next Stage of IPA's Programming Includes a Fall 2022 Internship Class and Fall Project Series comprised of 15-20 students Training with IPA Across Corporate Finance, Capital Markets, and Strategic Advisory. Selected Participants will get Added to IPA's Recommended Diverse Talent Resume Book

Week on Wall Street & Summer Series Participants

IPA's Internship Programming Highlights our Commitment and Mission to Widen the Pipeline of Diverse Talent into Finance with 100% of Receiving Offers in the Industry